O LORD! GRANT THE QUEEN A LONG LIFE

Edited by Dean Jobin-Bevans
Editorial Notes:

The original pulse at the level the half note has been maintained throughout, choosing to bar the piece with groupings of two minim per measure instead of irregular groupings as per the manuscript.

In making decisions about the placement of the barlines, every attempt has been made to preserve the rhythm of the text.

The Soprano, Alto and Tenor vocal clefs have been modernized.

The organ part represents a reduction of the vocal parts and can be played ad libitum.

In most cases, the original language has been preserved and the punctuation (or lack thereof) has remained true to the original.

So will I ev-er more give thanks ev-er more give thanks un-to thy name that I may day-ly pre-form my vows
So will I ev-er more give thanks
ev-er more give thanks un-to thy name
So will I ev-e-r more give thanks
So will I ev-e-r more give thanks un-to thy name that I may day-ly per-form my vows

So will I ev-e-r more give thanks un-to thy name that I may day-ly per-form my vows

to thy name that I may daily perform my vows
ever more give thanks unto thy name

that I may daily perform my vows

I will form my vows I will ever more give thanks that I may daily perform my vows

I will ever more give thanks that I may
dayly perform my vows

So will I ever more give thanks

ever more give thanks that I may daily perform my vows

I will ever more give thanks that I may
dayly perform my vows
I will ever more give thanks
daily perform my vows
I will ever more give thanks
that I may daily perform my vows
that I may daily perform my vows
that I may daily perform my vows
that I may daily perform my vows
that I may daily perform my vows
that I may daily perform my vows
