

REFLECTIVE STUDY DAY: 'INTERIOR PILGRIMAGE'
10.00am to 4.00pm on Friday 13th March 2020
In the McKenna Room and Christ Church Cathedral

To be led by Canon Robin Gibbons and Revd Georgie Simpson

Canon Robin Gibbons is a Melkite priest and Ecumenical Canon of Christ Church Cathedral. Revd Georgie Simpson is Director of the Oxford Centre for Spiritual Growth (OCSG).

Many of us may have been on one or more pilgrimages, perhaps to Assisi, Jerusalem or Santiago de Compostela, or somewhere in the UK. Or we may have made a mini-pilgrimage by walking the labyrinth - the most famous ancient example being set into the nave of Chartres Cathedral - but they are increasingly to be found in retreat centres throughout the country.

However, it is also possible to make an interior pilgrimage and this may last for a single day or less, or it may become the journey of a lifetime.

During this reflective quiet day, we hope to provide some sacred space, a framework which will include plenty of opportunity to rest and relish some quiet time, to look at some key images in the Cathedral, to listen to some reflective music and to hear a few words which might help to point us to the way forward in our lives, perhaps even to find what we are looking for. We hope that this day will be an uplifting spiritual tonic which we will all enjoy.

TICKETS: Friends - £20 each/Guests – £22 each

The detail of the programme is work in progress at the time of writing this flyer but the day will include morning and afternoon tea/coffee and lunch.
