THE LOST VAN LINGE WINDOWS
Christ Church Cathedral and other Oxford Colleges
Wednesday; 25th July at 1.00pm

An afternoon led by historian, Dr Sarah Mortimer and the Dean’s Verger, Matthew Power

In Christ Church Cathedral there was once a magnificent collection of windows by the 17th century master, Abraham Van Linge – almost all of them destroyed in the fury of Puritan iconoclasm. In 2015 the Friends ran a half-day event looking at this loss in the light of the then relatively recently rediscovered fragments of smashed Van Linge glass. Today, piecing this material together and deciding how it can be enjoyed in the future has become an exciting, ongoing task and Sarah Mortimer along with Matthew Power will guide us and tell of current ideas and practical progress.

Programme:
1.00pm   Meet in Christ Church Cathedral Ante-chapel.

The afternoon will then include a walk to Lincoln and University College chapels to view surviving examples of Van Linge’s work, returning to the Cathedral for an up-to-the-minute briefing on the Van Linge project here, followed by informal ‘Tea and Questions’ in the Frideswide Room.

The afternoon is scheduled to end at 4.15pm.

The 2015 event was over-subscribed and some Friends were unable to obtain tickets. Once again, numbers will be limited to 25, so early applications are advised – and please remind us on the tear-off slip if you were one of those who missed out in 2015!

Tickets: Friends - £15 each/Guests - £18.00 each

Please note: Parking in Christ Church is NOT available.
Refund Policy:   It is not possible to offer refunds. However, if an event is over-subscribed a reserve list will be started. If you need to cancel you will be put in touch with someone on that reserve list.
